IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of 14 months and 26 days or time served, whichever is less.

Said term is imposed as to each Counts S1 and S10 and shall run concurrently for a total term of 14 months and 26 days.

The Court incorporates by reference its Sealed Memorandum Opinion and Order, filed October 20, 2011 (Doc. 407) ("MOO"). Defendant Alyshia Wright, pursuant to a Plea Agreement, filed April 25, 2011 (Doc. 270), pled guilty to Count 1 and Count 10 of the Superseding Indictment, filed April 27, 2010 (Doc. 62), charging her with a violation of 21 U.S.C. § 846, that being conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine, and 21 U.S.C. § 843(b), that being use of a telephone to facilitate a drug trafficking offense. The parties agreed to a 2-level reduction pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 3B1.2 based on Wright being a minor participant. See Plea Agreement ¶ 10, at 4. The parties also agreed to a 3-level reduction in the base offense level pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1 for Wright's acceptance of responsibility. See Plea Agreement ¶ 10, at 5. Wright and the Plaintiff United States of America did not agree to a specific sentence, and both reserved their rights to assert any position or argument with respect to the imposition of a sentence. See Plea Agreement ¶ 10, at 6.

The United States Probation Office ("USPO") disclosed a Presentence Investigation Report ("PSR") for Wright on June 16, 2011. With respect to a 2-level reduction under U.S.S.G. § 3B1.2(b) based on Wright's role as a minor participant, the USPO stated that "there is insufficient evidence to determine whether the defendant was working under the direction of another or directing others." PSR ¶ 248, at 39. Nevertheless, the PSR applied a 2-level reduction pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 3B1.2(b), because the parties stipulated in the Plea Agreement that Wright was a minor participant. See PSR ¶ 248, at 39. The PSR calculated Wright's adjusted offense level as 16 and her total offense level after a 3-level reduction for acceptance of responsibility as 13. The PSR calculated Wright's criminal history category as IV. The PSR calculated that an offense level of 13 and a criminal history category IV results in a guideline imprisonment range of 24 to 30 months. See PSR ¶ 316, at 57. There being no disputes about the PSR's factual findings, the Court adopts those findings as its own.

In its MOO, the Court rejected the parties' stipulation that Wright was a minor participant under U.S.S.G. § 3B1.2(b). See MOO at 3-5. Wright moves the Court for a sentence of 15 months or time served. At the sentencing hearing on July 28, 2011, the United States represented that it did not oppose Wright's request that the Court vary to a 15-month sentence or a sentence of time served. Other than on the issue of Wright being a minor role participant under U.S.S.G. § 3B1.2(b), the Court adopts the sentencing calculations in the PSR as its own. A criminal offense level of 15 and a criminal history category of IV establishes a guideline imprisonment range of 30 to 37 months.

The Court notes that Wright conspired to distribute 14.7 grams of methamphetamine and used a telephone to facilitate a drug trafficking offense. The Court has carefully considered the parties' arguments and the circumstances of this case. The Court has considered the guideline range for the applicable category of offense committed by the applicable category of defendant. The Court believes that the punishment that the guidelines set forth is not appropriate for Wright's offenses. The Court agrees with the parties that a sentence of time served is sufficient to reflect the seriousness of these offenses. The Court has considered the kinds of sentences and ranges that the guidelines establish. Wright has been physically and sexually abused throughout her life. In 2007, she had been clean from drugs for more than six years, and she was a sponsor for other addicts. She then met a man who physically abused her. He would lock her in closets for days at a time, and, on one occasion, he broke her jaw. As this abuse became worse, Wright began abusing cocaine and methamphetamine. Her involvement in the case before the Court was necessitated by her need to earn money to support her methamphetamine addiction. For the most part, she is a user that trafficked in drugs to support her drug habit. The Court has considered the guidelines, but, in arriving at its sentence, has taken into account not only the guidelines but other sentencing goals. The Court believes that a sentence of time served is appropriate to reflect Wright's criminal history and the seriousness of Wright's crimes. In the 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) calculation, the factor of rehabilitation should dominate over other factors, such as punishment. A sentence of time served is adequate to protect the public. Because of the conditions the Court will impose as part of supervised release, a sentence of time served will more immediately provide Wright with the education, training, and care she needs to overcome her drug problems. This sentence adequately reflects the seriousness of her offenses, promotes respect for the law, provides just punishment, affords adequate deterrence, protects the public, and otherwise fully reflects each of the factors embodied in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a). While the Court's task, as a district court, is not to arrive at a reasonable sentence -- it is to come up with one that reflects the factors in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), see United States v.

Conlan, 500 F.3d 1167, 1169 (10th Cir. 2007)("[A] district court's job is not to impose a reasonable sentence. Rather, a district court's mandate is to impose a sentence sufficient, but not greater than necessary, to comply with the purposes of section 3553(a)(2)." (citation omitted)) -- the Court believes this sentence is reasonable. And perhaps most important in this calculation, the Court believes that this sentence is sufficient, but not greater than necessary, to comply with the purposes of punishment Congress set forth in the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, Pub. L. No. 98-473, 98 Stat. 1987 (codified as amended in scattered sections of 18 U.S.C.). The Court sentences Wright to a sentence of time served.
